Directions to Camp

Take your favorite route to the San Bernardino Freeway (Interstate 10) and head east towards the city of Redlands.

When you reach the Redlands area, take the University Street exit.

Turn left (north) onto University Street.

Turn right (east) onto Lugonia Avenue (1.63 miles)

Continue on Lugonia Avenue, heading east. Lugonia Avenue becomes Mentone Blvd. (0.98 miles), which in turn becomes Mentone Blvd./Highway 38 (1.02 miles). Mentone Blvd./Highway 38 becomes Mill Creek Road/Highway 38 (3.14 miles).

Continue east on Highway 38 up the mountain, heading towards Angelus Oaks.

Continue past Angelus Oaks, heading towards Barton Flats. Camp Arbolado is 7.5 miles past Angelus Oaks. The gravel/dirt entry road is on your left off of Highway 38 (indicated by the red star on the map above). Watch for the Barton Flats Forest Service Information Center on the right hand side. The camp entry road is less than 1/4 mile past this point.

Needed Items:

Warm Sleeping bag
Pillow
Blanket
4 Pairs of Thick Socks
Pajamas
Warm Jacket
Waterproof Gloves
Sweatshirts
Pants (snow pants are best)
Underwear
Long Sleeved Shirts
Soap
Toothbrush & Toothpaste
2 Pairs of Tennis Shoes
Snow Boots
Flashlight

Optional:

Book
Magazine
Board Games
Playing Cards
Puzzles
Sleds or Tubes
Chains for the Cars (if applicable)

If there is no snow, bring shoes to hike in

Dinner will be served on Friday. If you choose to eat on the road make sure you stop at the foot of the hill on Jenks Rd W since there are limited food places available on the mountain.

If possible, try to leave around lunchtime on Friday since the traffic gets backed up starting at 2:30pm.

Whether there is snow or not, make sure to bring extra clothes since the ones you play in get wet.
